ORDINANCE NO. 2 of 2007

An Ordinance of Newport Township amending certain provisions of Newport Township Ordinance No. 1973-4 (and all amendments thereto including , but not limited to Ordinance No 8 of 1991, Ordinance No 1 of 1993 and Ordinance No. 1 of 1996) prohibiting parking on certain streets and roadways in the Township and providing penalties for violations.

WHEREAS, a dry hydrant has been installed at the end of a public roadway known as “Inn Street” in the Lee section of Newport Township near an area known as “Chopak’s Pond,”and

WHEREAS, it is imperative that fire trucks have complete ingress and egress to the dry hydrant installed adjacent to an area known as Chopak’s Pond, and

Whereas, the Township of Newport has determined that parking restrictions on this roadway would best serve the safety and welfare of it’s residents in allowing constant access by fire trucks to the dry hydrant,

Now therefore, be it enacted and ordained by the Township of Newport, Luzerne County, Pennsylvania, and it is hereby enacted and ordained by the authority of the same as follows:

Ordinance 1973-4 of the Township of Newport, as subsequently amended, includes the following provision:

SECTION 1: No person shall park a motor vehicle or permit it to stand, whether attended or unattended, upon the following designated streets or portion thereof in the Township of Newport at any time;

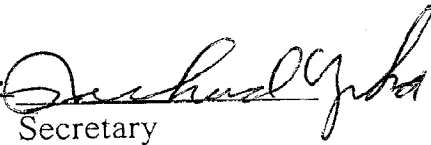

Said Ordinance, as amended, shall be further amended to prohibit parking in the following designated area:

69. On the dirt roadway designated as "Inn Street" as indicated in Luzerne County Map Book 3, page 197, from the area adjoining PA Legislative Route No. 40031 to the end of the roadway adjacent to the dry hydrant next to an area known as Chopak's Pond

This Amendment shall take effect upon adoption and the placement of the appropriate "No Parking" signs on the designated roadway

Enacted and ordained at a meeting of the Newport Township Board of Commissioners held on the 4th day of June 2007.
